

WITTENBERG WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM & INDIVIDUAL CAMPS

2009 Camp Application

CAMP DIRECTOR

Norm Riker
 Head Women's Soccer Coach
 Wittenberg University
 2007 Ohio and Great Lakes
 Regional Coach of the Year

Coach Riker will begin his eighth season as Witt's head coach in 2009. The Tigers are one of the most successful programs in all of NCAA Division III in recent years with a record of 69-19-18 since 2004. In 2008, Wittenberg won its third NCAC championship and advanced to its third straight the NCAA Division III Tournament. He holds his NSCAA premier license and his USSF "B" license.

FEATURED COACHES

Tom Esler
 Asst. Women's Soccer Coach
 Wittenberg University

Coach Esler has coached for 25 years in the Washington D.C. Area, including nine years as director of coaching for the Damascus Soccer Club in Damascus, Md. He is the program's goalkeeper coach.

Mandi Wroblewski
 Asst. Women's Soccer Coach
 Wittenberg University

Coach Wroblewski is a 2006 graduate of Otterbein College, where she was a four-year letterwinner and earned multiple postseason honors. In her second season with the Wittenberg women's soccer coaching staff she was instrumental in helping the team achieve the best season in school history, with an 18-3-3 record. She holds an NSCAA state diploma and regional goalkeeping diploma.

CAMP MISSION

Our camp will offer new opportunities to expand your skill and knowledge of the game and create lasting friendships with your teammates, the new players you will meet and our staff. These camps are equipped to handle individual players and teams interested in high-impact soccer and fun. You will find that we create a balance between serious concentration on skills and having a great time on Wittenberg's beautiful campus. Most importantly, we want to make sure each player has an enjoyable learning experience and leaves camp with a new appreciation for the game.
