Please submit your typed responses on a separate paper as completely and concisely as possible. Do not include your name with your answers. (Your name should only appear at the top of this page).

1. Are you able to attend weekly meetings on Thursdays from 5-6pm?

2. Why are you applying for a position on the Honor Council?

3. Why do you think academic integrity is important?

4. Give some examples of how you’ve made integrity a priority in your life both inside and outside the classroom.

5. What do you expect to gain from your involvement with the Honor Council?

6. Please describe any related experience that you think may help you as a member of the Honor Council.

7. List the activities and organizations that you plan to participate in during the next year and the time commitment involved (estimate hours per week).

The applications will be reviewed and some applicants will be contacted for a personal interview with the Honor Council selection committee. Interviews will be held on Thursday, September 22, 2011 in the early evening. (Please let us know if the date or time is a problem).

If you are selected as a member of the Honor Council, you will be expected to attend training and all meetings. Meetings are held every Thursday, from 5-6pm. Only those who can attend weekly meetings will be considered.
